field and barn of J. G. Covington just west of town, and has go ne into winter quarters with his show. Rufus McCoy last week was chopping in the woods, and in felling a tree the latter split and started to fall in another direction than the one intended. His little boy was in the way, and Rufe jumped and threw the child out of danger, but was himself caught by the falling tree. All that saved him from being crushed to death was the fact that the tree was crooked and he happened to be caught in the bend.

CONSTIPATION

Health is absolutely impossible, if constipation be present. Many serious cases of liver and kidney complaint have sprung from neglected constipation. Such a deplorable condition is unnecessary.—
There is cure for it. Herbine will speedily remedy matters. C. A. Lindsay, P.M., ticonson, Fla., writes, Feb. 12, 1902; Having tried Herbine, I find it a fine medicine for constipation." 59e bottle.—
